Pleasant Valley

Merry Christmas and a happy New Year to all.

The young people of the community called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Mays Monday evening to pay their respects and give them a serenade.

The Christmas program at the church will be given Thursday evening, December 21, instead of Friday, December 22, as previously announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Guttridge entertained Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hudkins, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Nix and family, Miss Beck and Mr. E. Folmer, for Sunday dinner.

Cecil Harrel is still improving nicely.

Before making your farm loan, see Griffith, at Griffith & Baughman's, for his attractive loan rates.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the Methodist church in Liberal for Mr. J. A. Fuller, father of Mr. John Fuller, of this community, and one of the earliest settlers in this part of the county. We extend our sincerest sympathies.

Miss Alice Beck, teacher of Pleasant Valley school, will spend Christmas vacation at her home in Wichita, Kansas.

Rev. Pennington of Liberal, had charge of the church services Tuesday night. All enjoyed his sermon.

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM AT TUCKER THEATER

A program much out of the ordinary is to be presented at the Tucker theater Christmas, both matinee and night. A large Christmas tree will be placed in the lobby. Santa Claus has sent word that he will close his 1922 campaign with a personal appearance and that he will have a box of candy for the kiddies. His treat for the older ones is Norma Talmadge in her greatest picture, "Smilin' Through." As an added attraction Mr. Mart Baker will sing "Smilin' Through," a song composed and dedicated to the picture. Make it a point to visit the Tucker Christmas day.—Adv.

Mrs. Floyd Heaton and little daughter were guests at the D. C. Wood home Tuesday.

C. C. Ragdale of Gray was transacting business here Tuesday.

"GROCETERIA"

In the management of a business where the foremost thought is the reduction of overhead expenses, to give the patrons the benefit of the reduction of the H. C. L., the clerk hire and delivery expense, is the largest expenses which are to be overcome. In establishing the new "Grocery," we have been able to overcome those excess expenses, and offer the buying public something that is seldom enjoyed in a town the size of Liberal. Take a basket and pass through the aisles, and select the groceries of your desires, without any suggestions, or persuasions from clerks.

Below are listed a few prices which the alert housewife will at once perceive are lower than the prices which she has been paying:

No. 1 Tomatoes 10c	No. 2 1/2 Sliced Pineapple . . 36c
No. 1 Del Monte Peaches . . 19c	No. 1 Del Monte Spinach . 16c
No. 1 Del Monte Apricots . 19c	No. 2 1/2 Del Monte Spinach . 26c
Large Jersey Corn Flakes . . 11c	Small Jersey Corn Flakes . . 8c
These corn flakes are a new product for this territory, but are much in favor where known.	No. 0 Ripe Olives 9c
Mothers Aluminum Oats . . 33c	No. 10 Prunes 57c
No. 5 Maple Flavor Syrup . 40c	No. 2 Fruit Salad 39c
No. 2 Pitted Red Cherries . . 29c	No. 1 Salmon 16c

We Wish Our Patrons
and Friends
A Merry Christmas

Our business since coming to Liberal has been highly satisfactory and we are truly thankful for the disposition shown by the people of Liberal and vicinity to encourage new business people with their patronage.

We are showing splendid lines of new House Slippers for Gifts, as well as New Pumps and Oxfords, and while our stock is not yet as large as we expect to make it, there are many pleasing models on display.

We invite you to call and see our lines and get our prices. We believe we can show you something which will please you at a price you will realize is right.
